

I call on you to hold an official public hearing in my state.

Before the disastrous 2003 decision to weaken media ownership rules (which a federal court has now overturned), you held only one official public hearing. Further, FCC officials met behind closed doors 71 times with major broadcasters – but only five times with public interest groups. And to justify your actions, you used deceptive, industry-sponsored research data.

The will of Big Media had been heeded at the expense of American citizens and democracy itself. This has to end. Before you rewrite the ownership rules, I demand an official public FCC hearing in my state, impartial and verifiable research, and transparent debates.

It is time to put the needs of democracy – a diverse, skeptical, independent and competitive media system – ahead of profit-hungry media giants.

Recently I have been tuning into to an Independent Media Station, Democracy Now. It is very apparent to me that corporate media does not serve the people of this nation. I get the real facts from this independent source. The profit-hungry media giants contribute to corruption in Government, local politics and mislead American Citizens. If we are truly a Democratic society, then let's act like one.
